FEDERAL LEGISLATIVE OUTLOOK AND ISSUES OF COUNTY INTEREST

This memorandum is to provide the Board with the Federal legislative outlook for 2013, which is the first year of the 113th Session of Congress. It also outlines County positions on major Federal legislative issues which will be pursued, based on existing Board-adopted Federal legislative policy, unless otherwise instructed by the Board.

Federal Legislative Outlook

The two years of the 112th Congress were marked by deep divisions between the two parties and brinksmanship on major fiscal issues, as evidenced by its last minute enactment of "fiscal cliff" legislation. Last November's elections also left Democrats in control of the Presidency and Senate, Republicans in control of the House, and even fewer moderate Members of Congress in both parties. The Federal legislative outlook for 2013 is more of the same - divided government, deep partisan differences, and considerable time that will be spent on budget and major fiscal cliff-type issues.

Fiscal Issues: The most immediate issues facing the new 113th Congress are fiscal issues related to the Federal debt ceiling, across-the-board sequestration spending cuts, and Federal Fiscal Year (FFY) 2013 appropriations, which were deferred from last year to the first three months of 2013. The current Federal debt ceiling of $16.39 trillion must be raised or suspended by the end of February or March to avoid a default on the Federal debt. Secondly, $85 billion in sequestration cuts will be imposed on March 1, 2013 unless Congress acts to defer, modify, or repeal them. Congress then must finalize FFY 2013 appropriations or enact another Continuing Resolution (CR) by March 27, 2013 to avoid a government shutdown. Last year, Congress did not enact any of the 12 FFY 2013 appropriations bills, but, instead, temporarily funded Federal programs and activities through a CR, which expires on March 27, 2013.

The fiscal cliff bill (H.R. 8), which was enacted on January 2, 2013, did not permanently resolve any of the fiscal cliff issues other than several major tax issues, such as those relating to income tax rates, the alternative minimum tax, and the estate tax, for which permanent fixes were enacted. Otherwise, H.R. 8 only postponed the imposition of FFY 2013 sequestration cuts for two months and the 27 percent reduction in Medicare physician payments for a year, and temporarily extended Farm bill programs through the end of FFY 2013 and long-term Unemployment Insurance benefits through December 31, 2013. The bill also did not address the Federal debt ceiling.

Deficit reduction and alternatives to sequestration spending cuts will be high on the Congressional agenda this year and in the foreseeable future. There is bipartisan support for reducing the Federal budget deficit and avoiding sequestration cuts, but not on how to do so. Most notably, there are partisan differences on whether solely spending cuts rather than a combination of spending cuts and tax increases should be used to reduce the deficit and avoid sequestration cuts. There also are differences on which programs and activities specifically should be cut and by how much. Due to such partisan differences, reaching a grand compromise on a major deficit reduction package has been and probably will continue to be elusive. Therefore, just as in the 112th Congress, it is more likely that the new 113th Congress will reduce the Federal deficit through smaller, more incremental changes in current law.

Entitlement (mandatory) spending currently accounts for roughly two-thirds of total Federal spending. Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid alone account for more than 40 percent of total Federal spending, and their share of the total budget is growing. Entitlement spending, such as Medicaid, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Title IV-E Foster Care and Adoption Assistance, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), and child support enforcement, also accounts for most of the County's Federal revenue. In fact, Medicaid alone accounts for over half of the County's total Federal revenue, and its share of the County's Federal revenue will be even higher in the future due to rising health costs, the Affordable Care Act's (ACA) Medicaid expansions, and scheduled reductions in overall discretionary spending pursuant to the Budget Control Act (BCA) of 2011.

Discretionary programs, such as the State Criminal Alien Assistance Program (SCAAP) and Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), are more vulnerable to budget cuts than mandatory programs because they must be funded annually through appropriations bills in a highly competitive budget climate. In contrast, mandatory programs are automatically funded unless Congress enacts changes in current law. Therefore, Congressional inaction protects mandatory programs from being cut. Moreover, all discretionary programs through which the County receives funding are subject to the BCA's sequestration cuts while most low-income mandatory programs are exempt from such cuts, including Medicaid, TANF, Title IV-E, SNAP, and child support enforcement, which account for most of the County's Federal revenue.

This year, changes in tax policies will be considered as a means for reducing the budget deficit as well as in the context of tax reform. The main tax reform issue will be whether to finance reductions in tax rates and simplify the tax code by reducing tax expenditures, which are tax revenue losses through tax provisions, such as exemptions or deductions from taxable income or tax credits. Major tax expenditures of importance to state and local governments include their ability to issue tax-exempt bonds and the tax deductibility of state and local income and property taxes.

The prospects for the enactment of major changes in entitlement spending or taxes will be greatly affected by whether or not Congress passes a FFY 2014 Budget Resolution with budget reconciliation instructions to reduce entitlement spending and/or change tax policies. This is important because budget reconciliation legislation cannot be filibustered in the Senate, which means that only a simple majority rather than 60-vote majority is needed to move such legislation on the Senate floor. Over the years, major tax and entitlement program changes often have been enacted through budget reconciliation legislation, such as the ACA, the 1996 welfare reform law, which created TANF, and the Bush Administration's major tax cuts. Congress, however, has not passed a budget resolution since 2009 when it passed the FFY 2010 budget resolution, which included the budget reconciliation instructions used to help pass the ACA.

Policy Issues: Besides budget-related issues, Congress will consider several other major issues of County interest, including gun violence, immigration, and climate change, which are priorities for the Obama Administration. Congress also might consider legislation to reauthorize some programs through which the County receives funding, including discretionary programs for which funding authorizations have expired or will expire at the end of FFY 2013, such as Workforce Investment Act (WIA), Older Americans Act, and Ryan White AIDS programs. Two major mandatory spending programs of County interest also must be reauthorized - TANF, which expires at the end of March 2013, and SNAP, which expires at the end of FFY 2013.

The enactment of non-fiscal bills, however, will face an uphill battle in 2013 due to the polarization between the two parties, use of filibusters and other delaying tactics in the Senate, which requires a 60-vote majority to overcome, and the considerable time that Congress will have to spend on “must-pass” fiscal legislation, such as the debt ceiling increase and annual appropriations bills. It also has become increasingly rare for discretionary programs to be reauthorized because they routinely are funded in annual appropriations bills even after their authorizations have expired. For example, programs for which funding authorizations had expired under 259 separate laws received a total of $261 billion in FFY 2012 appropriations. This included funding for WIA programs, which never have been reauthorized since their original authorization expired at the end of FFY 2003.

Mandatory spending programs, such as TANF and SNAP, however, must be reauthorized in order to receive continued funding. It is certain that Congress will extend funding for both TANF and SNAP, but it is unlikely that a multi-year TANF reauthorization bill will be enacted. Since TANF was established in 1996, a multi-year TANF reauthorization bill has been enacted only once, and, instead, has been temporarily extended many times. It is far more likely that a multi-year reauthorization of SNAP will be enacted because the Farm bill, which authorizes popular agricultural programs, will be the vehicle for reauthorizing SNAP. However, because SNAP expenditures have rapidly grown in the past decade to more than $80 billion a year, SNAP has become a bigger target for spending cuts to reduce the deficit or to protect other Farm bill programs from spending cuts.

County Positions on Major Federal Legislative Issues

As indicated in the Federal Legislative Outlook section, the Congress will be devoting much of its time this year to fiscal issues, especially those relating to the Federal budget and deficit reduction. Similar to last year, the County’s overarching concern will be to protect the County against the loss of Federal revenue or increased costs, especially in program areas that are financially important to the County.

Medicaid: Medicaid, by far, is the single largest and most important source of Federal and State revenue to the County, accounting for over half of the County’s total Federal revenue. Under the new health care reform law, Medicaid is even more important to the County because it greatly expands Medicaid eligibility, increases Federal financial participation, and also prohibits states from increasing local governments’ percentage share of non-Federal Medicaid costs as a condition for receipt of Medicaid.

Medicaid will be a major target for spending cuts because it is the largest Federal program after Social Security and Medicare and because its expenditures are growing far faster than the rest of the Federal Budget. We believe that it is unlikely that Medicaid would be significantly cut through the enactment of legislation which repeals the ACA's Medicaid expansions or block grants or caps Federal Medicaid expenditures. However, there is a far greater risk of smaller Medicaid cuts being enacted, especially those proposed or supported by the Administration. Most notably, there is a strong likelihood that the ACA's Medicaid Disproportionate Share Hospital (DSH) cuts will be extended for another year through FFY 2023. The ACA included annual Medicaid DSH cuts in FFYs 2014 through FFY 2020. However, as proposed by the President, the 112th Congress extended the ACA's DSH cuts through FFYs 2021 and 2022 to help finance extensions of the Medicare "doc fix" through the end of 2013.

Medicaid DSH payments and other supplemental payments and the use of provider taxes, certified public expenditures (CPEs), and intergovernmental transfers (IGTs) to finance the non-Federal share of Medicaid costs also will be vulnerable to budget cuts because such cuts historically have received bipartisan support. Last year, the President not only supported extending the ACA's Medicaid DSH cuts, but also proposed further restrictions on the use of provider taxes to finance Medicaid costs. Reducing Medicaid DSH and supplemental payments and the use of provider taxes, CPEs, and IGTs all would hurt the County because they have been important tools for financing higher Medicaid payments to County hospitals and other health providers at no cost to the State General Fund.

Unless otherwise instructed by the Board, the County's Washington, D.C. advocates will continue to seek to preserve the County's Medicaid revenue, consistent with existing policies in the County's Federal Legislative Agenda, such as:

- Oppose proposals which would increase the County's unreimbursed costs of providing and administering health care services, such as proposals which would reduce the level of Medicaid payments, reduce the number of Medicaid eligible persons, and reduce the scope of Medicaid covered services; and
- Support reform of Medicaid financing and provider payments to increase Medicaid payments, including DSH payments, to health safety net providers.

Health Care Reform: During the 112th Congress, the House passed numerous bills to repeal all or parts of the ACA. While it is highly unlikely that the entire ACA will be repealed, some of its provisions might be eliminated or amended, such as the County-supported Prevention and Public Health Fund (PPHF), which is an important source of funding for prevention, public health, and wellness activities. Last year, the President's Proposed FFY 2013 Budget included a $4 billion reduction in PPHF appropriations over 10 years, and, shortly after its release, Congress enacted H.R. 3630, which reduced the PPHF by $6.25 billion to help finance a one-year Medicare "doc fix."

Pursuant to existing Board policy, unless otherwise instructed by the Board, the County's Washington, D.C. advocates will seek to preserve the ACA, especially its provisions which expand health insurance coverage, provide the County with increased Federal Medicaid, PPH Fund, and other resources with which to finance medical, mental health, public health, and other County-administered services, and protect the County from increased costs for such services.

Human Services Entitlements: Next to Medicaid, the County receives most of its Federal revenue through human services entitlement programs - most notably, TANF and Title IV-E Foster Care and Adoption Assistance. California receives over one-fifth of total Federal TANF and IV-E funding, and the County alone receives more TANF and IV-E funding than any state other than California and New York. The County also receives a sizable amount of State TANF state maintenance-of-effort funding and State realignment revenue which finances non-Federal foster care, adoption assistance, and other child welfare costs.

Neither TANF nor Title IV-E funding is expected to be targeted for spending cuts because, under current law, Federal spending is not projected to grow under either program due to changes made by the Federal 1996 welfare reform law. That law permanently froze annual TANF block grant funding at the amount equal to what states previously received under the open-ended Aid to Families with Dependent Children entitlement, which it replaced. Federal foster care spending was cut by linking Federal foster care eligibility to AFDC eligibility standards in effect in July 1996. Because financial need standards have not been adjusted for inflation, there has been a steady decline in the percentage of foster children eligible for Federal reimbursement.

Title IV-E is an open-ended entitlement for which Federal matching funds are automatically provided to states without requiring any Congressional action while TANF is a capped entitlement, which must be reauthorized and funded beyond the end of March 2013 when its latest short-term extension expires. As indicated earlier, we expect that Congress will continue to enact short-term TANF extensions. If Congress were to consider a multi-year TANF reauthorization bill, unless otherwise instructed by the Board, the County would support a bill which maintains or increases TANF funding and state and local flexibility, preserves an equitable allocation of funds to California, and promotes self-sufficiency, such as through subsidized employment, based on existing policies in the County's Federal Legislative Agenda.

As noted earlier, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) is more vulnerable to budget cuts. Moreover, during the 112th Congress, the House passed budget resolutions and the House Agriculture Committee approved a Farm bill, which provided for major cuts in SNAP expenditures over the next 10 years. The budget resolutions would have converted SNAP into a state block grant funded at a lower level than under current law while the House Farm bill would have significantly reduced SNAP eligibility. Most notably, the House bill would have narrowed the definition of “categorical eligibility” to no longer allow households who receive non-cash TANF-funded assistance to automatically qualify for SNAP benefits.

There is very little chance that SNAP will be converted into a block grant, but there is a greater risk that SNAP eligibility will be reduced or that increased administrative costs and responsibilities will be shifted to state and local governments. Based on existing policies in the Federal Legislative Agenda, unless otherwise instructed by the Board, the County will support legislation that would maintain SNAP as an open-ended entitlement and simplify program administration, and will oppose legislation that would reduce the number of low-income County residents who are eligible for SNAP benefits or impose increased state and local administrative costs and responsibilities without a corresponding increase in Federal funding.

Discretionary Spending: As indicated earlier, discretionary programs, which are funded through annual appropriations bills, are especially vulnerable to budget cuts, including across-the-board sequestration cuts. Besides establishing sequestration procedures to meet deficit reduction targets, the BCA also set annual overall discretionary spending caps, which essentially make appropriations a “zero-sum” game in which funding increases for some programs must be offset by cuts in other programs.

As in past years, state and local law enforcement programs, such as SCAAP, and state and local law homeland security programs, such as the Urban Area Security Initiative (UASI) Grant and State Homeland Security Grant Program (SHSGP) will be especially vulnerable to budget cuts. SCAAP and UASI lack broad-based support because most of their funding goes to a relatively few state and local governments. The large unexpended balances of UASI and SHSGP funds also make those programs vulnerable to cuts to fund increases for other programs and activities with more immediate funding needs, such as disaster aid and immigration services, which are funded under the same Homeland Security Appropriations bill. State and local law enforcement programs compete for limited funding with high-priority Federal operations that have broad-based support, such as the Federal Bureau of Investigations and Bureau of Prisons.

The Federal Agenda includes two overall Federal policies which are especially relevant to advocacy on budget issues facing the County:

- Support proposals which would provide a greater share of total available Federal funding to the County or California, and oppose proposals which would reduce the County's or State's share of total funding; and

- Oppose proposals which would finance increased spending for one program by cutting other programs of greater benefit to the County, or which would result in a net revenue loss or a cost shift to the County.

The policy to oppose proposals which finance increased funding for one program by cutting other programs of greater benefit to the County was added after it became common for SCAAP to be targeted for cuts to fund increases in other programs through which the County receives little or no funding. Unless otherwise directed by the Board, based on this policy, the County will oppose proposals which would eliminate or reduce sequestration cuts by reducing funding under programs through which the County receives a greater share of U.S. total funding, such as Medicaid, Title IV-E, TANF, and other low-income entitlement programs, which are exempt from sequestration cuts. Federal discretionary programs which will continue to be County funding priorities will include SCAAP, UASI, Ryan White HIV/AIDS Emergency Assistance, Public Health Emergency Preparedness Grants, Hospital Preparedness Grants, CDBG, WIA formula grants, Section 8 Housing, and Public Housing. Under each of these programs, the County receives a relatively high share of total funding and receives either direct formula grants or mandatory pass-through funds through state formula grants.

As in prior years, unless otherwise instructed by the Board, the County also will support funding for state and local formula grants over competitive grants, including by supporting the elimination or reduction of funding for small competitive grants in order to maintain or increase funding for formula grant programs which are County priorities. The County receives a far higher share of total formula grant funding than competitive grant funding because formula grants are allocated mainly based on a state or local jurisdiction's share of U.S. total population and/or other need-based criteria. In contrast, competitive grants typically have maximum funding limits that are low relative to size of the County's population.

Tax Reform: As noted earlier, another major fiscal issue which Congress may consider this year is tax reform, which could affect two major tax expenditures of importance to the County - the tax-exempt status of state and local bonds and the deductibility of state and local income and property taxes. If the tax-exempt status of state and local bonds is eliminated or scaled back, California's and the County's borrowing costs would significantly increase, especially because the State and County have a relatively large number of affluent residents whose incomes are taxed at the highest income tax bracket. Similarly, the deductibility of state and local income and property taxes disproportionately benefits our State because it has a relatively large number of residents who itemize deductions and pay high income and property taxes. Unless otherwise instructed by the Board, the County will support preserving the Federal tax deductibility of state and local income taxes and the Federal tax-exempt status of state and local bonds, based on existing policy in the County's Federal Agenda.

Other Issues: As noted earlier, this year Congress will have to devote considerable time to major fiscal issues. When combined with the divided government and polarization between the two parties, it will be an uphill battle to enact legislation on other major issues of County interest, including gun violence, immigration reform, climate change, and the reauthorization of discretionary programs through which the County receives funding.

There are numerous existing policies in the Federal Legislative Agenda or separately adopted by the Board that are sufficiently comprehensive to enable the County's Washington, D.C. advocates and County departments to take positions on legislation relating to gun violence, immigration reform, climate change, and potential reauthorization bills of County interest. Most recently, the Board adopted positions on gun violence legislation, including positions to support the President's gun violence plan. In addition to specific existing policies relating to immigration, climate change, and discretionary programs with expired or expiring authorizations, such as SCAAP, WIA, Ryan White, and Older Americans Act programs, there also are overall Federal principles and policies in the Federal Legislative Agenda, which can be used to take positions on legislation of County interest.

The overall Federal principles are as follows:

1. Maximize Federal revenues.
2. Increase flexibility for the County.
3. Lessen the impact of adverse Federal policies on County costs and decision-making authority.

The overall Federal policies are as follows:

1. Support proposals which would provide a greater share of total available Federal funding to the County or California, and oppose proposals which would reduce the County's or State's share of total funding.
2. Support proposals which would provide local governments with greater decision-making authority over the use of Federal funds, and which provide for direct grants or mandatory pass-through allocations to large urban counties.
3. Oppose proposals which would impose new unfunded mandates on the County.

4. Oppose proposals which would finance increased spending for one program by cutting other programs of greater benefit to the County, or which would result in a net revenue loss or a cost shift to the County.
5. Support proposals to reduce or relax match requirements which hinder the ability of financially distressed state and local governments to receive or utilize Federal funds.
6. Support Federal fiscal relief for financially distressed state and local governments.
7. Oppose Federal preemption of State and local government authority.

These overall Federal principles and policies were adopted by your Board to replace the need to include more repetitive policies affecting each program, policy, or issue area. Before the Board adopted these overall principles and policies, the Federal Agenda became longer and increasingly repetitive each year as similarly worded policies were added to apply to more and more programs and issues of County interest. The overall principles and policies also allow the County's staff and Washington, D.C. advocates to respond quickly to new proposals and issues which may arise and be considered with little notice.

We will continue to keep you advised.

FEDERAL POLICIES ADDRESSING ISSUES OF MAJOR COUNTY INTEREST

1. Health/Mental Health

- a. Support reform of Medicaid financing and provider payments to increase Medicaid payments, including disproportionate share hospital payments, to health safety net providers.
- b. Support reform of Medicaid payments to providers to encourage efficient use of resources and expand ambulatory care services to low-income patients without jeopardizing total available Medicaid funds.
- c. Support a more equitable allocation of Federal Medicaid funds to reduce the current disparity under which some states, such as California, receive far less Federal Medicaid funds per Medicaid recipient than other states.
- d. Support proposals which would increase California's Federal Medical Assistance Percentage (FMAP), the Federal matching rate used under the Medicaid and Title IV-E Foster Care and Adoption Assistance programs.
- e. Oppose proposals which would increase the County's unreimbursed costs of providing and administering health care services, such as proposals which would reduce the level of Medicaid payments, reduce the number of Medicaid eligible persons, and reduce the scope of Medicaid covered services, such as by eliminating Medicaid reimbursement of graduate medical education costs and by narrowing the definition of rehabilitative services and targeted case management services that are eligible for Medicaid funding.
- f. Support proposals which would expand Medicaid, the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), and health insurance coverage to more persons, such as the uninsured, persons in State or local detention facilities, and minors whose health needs, otherwise, must be met by the County.
- g. Support proposals which would increase Federal reimbursement of the County's undocumented immigrant emergency medical costs.
- h. Support proposals to extend health insurance to more persons aged 55 to 64, such as by making Federal employee health benefit plans available to them.
- i. Support proposals to increase Medicare payments for graduate medical education to assist public teaching hospitals, which play a critical role in training residents, and to increase funding for graduate medical education programs in preventive medicine under Medicare or other programs.
- j. Support proposals and funding to enhance the nation's public health infrastructure and the capacity of local public hospitals, mental health departments, and health departments to prepare for and respond to acts of terrorism and other medical and public health emergencies.

- k. Support proposals which provide increased funding for trauma care services.
- l. Support proposals which provide funding for capital improvements to public hospitals, public health facilities, and clinics.
- m. Support proposals and funding which would promote and market the availability of County health and mental health services, which expand and improve access to health and mental health services for the uninsured, women, and other populations with special needs, and which decrease health and mental health disparities among ethnic and cultural groups.
- n. Support proposals which provide funding for urban telemedicine programs in medically underserved areas, and which would reimburse physicians in urban areas for telemedical consultations.
- o.
